WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1872.

A Card.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America, as missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness. Early D cay, Disease of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it. Free of Charge.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS. This Afternoon's Proceedings.

TUESDAY, May 7.

SENATE .- Mr. Chandler offered a resolution roviding for the appointment of a select committee of five by the chair to take the quesion of subsidies into consideration, and report whether any, and if so, what steamship line hould receive a subsidy from the government. He said that the Senate was now acting in the dark in respect of subsidies, and an investiga-tion should be had into the subject. He asked for the present consideration of the resolution out Mr. Kellogg objected, and it went over. THE MIXED SCHOOL BILL.

Mr. Sumner moved to take up his bill to se-cure equal rights in the common schools of Washington and Georgetown. Mr. Trumball hoped the bill would not be taken up. There was important public business pressing for action, and he did not think it was proper to set that aside for a bill to force white and colored children to go to the same school.

Mr. Edmunds hoped the bill would be taken up. It was a bill settling a great principle, and here in the District of Columbia, where Congress has the power, it should not hesitate to de what is right. Mr. Kellogg said there was business of much more importance to the people than THE UTOPIAN SCHEME OF MG. SUMNER, which should be acted on. Mr. Sumner resented the characterization of his bill as a Utopian scheme, and desired to call the attention of the colored people of Louisiana to this language of their representative. Mr. Trumbull sent to the desk to be read letter addressed to him, dated at the Executive Mansion, and enclosing. A TELEGRAM PROM SECRETARY DELANO setting forth the necessity of establishing a dis trict court in the Indian territory on account of the great disorders perpetrated by lawless white men. Mr. T. said there was urgent necessity for the establishment of this court, and he hoped the Senate would vote down Mr. Sumner's mo tion, and take up the bill to establish the court. Mr. Harlan moved to lay Mr. Sumper's motion to take up his bill on the table. Rejectedyeas 26, nays 29.

The motion of Mr. Somner was then agreed to-yeas 35, nays 20-and the bill being taken up, the first question was on THE AMENDMENT OF MR. FERRY. providing that the act shall be subject to the approval of the qualified voters of Washington and Georgetown at an election to be held on the first Monday in July. Mr. Ferry said if the people of these two cities wanted this measure he was perfectly willing that they should have it. He (Mr. F.) had himself, in his state of Connecticut, attended school with colored children. The school system of Connecticut opened the schools alike to both races; but this was of the free will of the people concerned. But the Senator from Massachusetts wants to fasten a tyrannical measure from without on the people of this district.

The morning hour here expired, and the bill went over, and the unfinished business, being

THE POST OFFICE APPROPRIATION BILL, Mr. Sumner moved to lay the appropriation bill on the table, for the purpose of proceeding with his bill. Mr. Pomeroy suggested that an arrangement should be made by which the school bill should be set for a special day. Mr. Saulsbury objected, and said that for ten years the time of Congress, instead of being devoted to the interests of the country, had been given up to schemes for the benefit of the negro. The motion of Mr. Summer to lay on the table the appropriation bill was then lost-ayes 19, Mr. Sumner then gave notice that on Thursday next, at the expiration of the morning hour, he would ask the Senate to take up his bill and proceed with it to a conclusion. THE POST OFFICE APPROPRIATION BILL was then proceeded with, the question being on concurring in the amendment increasing the subsidy to the Pacific mail line to $1,000,000; which, after a considerable discussion, was concurred in-ayes 26, nays 20.

The regular order was demanded, and the House, as in committee of the whole, resumed the consideration of the Senate amendments to THE DEFICIENCY APPROPRIATION BILL. The committee recommended concurrence in the 64th and last amendment, (known as the Morrill amendment,) in relation to certain claims for abandoned property, with an amend-ment, in the nature of a substitute, authorizing and directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to the owners, or their legal representatives, of property seized since June 30, 1865, the net proceeds of sales, without interest, taking receipts in full on account of such seizure, and appropriating a sufficient amount to pay such Mr. Garfield explained the ideas of the com-substitute as an act of justice, and not even full justice, for it only paid the net proceeds, while there should be paid the entire proceeds, and he charged that in many cases a large portion of the proceeds were held by the agents of the gov-

Mr. Bingham (Ohio) opposed the amendment, as it made no discrimination between enemies of the government, and opened the Treasury to all classes of claimants. Mr. Banks (Mass.) opposed the substitute as taken with existing laws it made unjust discriminations, compelling certain claimans to prove their loyalty, while others of the same class were not required to prove their loyalty. Mr. Peters (Me.) favored the repayment of the proceeds, characterizing the seizure after the war was over and peace proclaimed no bet-

Mr. Butler (Mass.) advo. ated the payment of the claims as an act of justice, but desired to see more safeguards thrown about the Treasury. He did not think the Secretary of the Treasury had the time to devote to the adjudication of Mr. Blair (Mich.) contended that the seizures after the 30th of June were not necessarily illegal. If the preperty was the property of the confederate government its seizure after that date was proper. He advocated the reference of all these claims to the Court of Claims.

Mr. Marshall (Ohio) said that if the amendment was adopted but partial justice would be done, for but a small portion of the value of the cotton se'zed had ever reached the Treasury, and he cited a case of the seizure of 2,500 bales of cotton in New Orleans, and of the proceeds of which less than $16,000 had yet reached the Treasury.

The House then took up the special order, viz: the Senate amendments to the Indian appropriation bill, and acted upon the several amendments. Mr. Cox (N. Y.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling upon the President to furnish the House, if not incompatible with the nish the House, if not incompatible with the public service, copies of any correspondence of this or the preceding administration relating to an extradition treaty with Belgium.

On motion or Mr. Garfield, committees of conference were ordered on the deficiency and Indian appropriation bills.

The House then, on motion of Mr. Dawes, went into committee of the whole on THE TARIFF BILL.

Mr. Dawes moved to strike out the first paragraph—"on teas of all kinds ten cents per pound."

Mr. Kelly (Pa.) said to save time he would, to test the sense of the House, move to strike out the enacting clause.

The motion to strike out prevailed by a vote of 95 to 75, and the committee accordingly rose and reported its action to the House.

themselves by giving her nuts. One child however, appears to have given her a stone and the animal, irritated by this, lifted a boy of thirteen by her trunk into her mouth, and only dropped him upon being ordered to do so by her keeper, who at the moment was unhooking the stable door, leaving her unattended. The child, on being dropped by the animal, fell flat to the ground, and was picked up insensible. He was taken to a surgeon, but in spite of every attention he died. He had been internally crushed and injured in the head. "DIARY OF A FALLEN WOMAN."-Connects
